

A collection of Oliver Mark's photographs were shown as part of a major portrait exhibition at the Lindenau-Museum in Altenburg, Germany. Mark's photographs were featured along with paintings by such artists as Domenico Ghirlandaio (15th century) and Michiel van Mierevelt (17th century).

The show ended April 3, 2016. Mark appeared at the museum for a conference with the journalist Andreas Tölke on Saturday, February 27th at 16h00.

Oliver Mark (b. 1963) is renowned for his portraits of aristocrats, artists, and celebrities. His work has been published in magazines such as Vogue and Vanity Fair, while his photographs have been exhibited in museums around the world. More information at his artist page or his personal website.

The featured image shows the collection of Oliver Mark portraits on display at the Lindenau-Museum. For further information about the availability of any prints of these images, inquiries are welcome via email at anna@clair.me